The Board operates a Remuneration and Nomination Committee as a Committee of the Board.

1. Role

The role of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee is to:

- Review and make recommendations to the Board in relation to recruitment, retention and termination of Directors, the Managing Director/CEO and Executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO (as recommended by the Managing Director/CEO);
- Ensure the remuneration of Directors, the Managing Director/CEO and executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO is designed to support the Company's vision, strategy, values, policies and short and long-term sustainable success; and
- Assist the Board in overseeing the implementation of the Company's commitment to diversity and inclusion.

2. Remuneration Responsibilities

The responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee in relation to remuneration are to:

- Review, and make recommendations to the Board, in relation to the remuneration of Directors, the Managing Director/CEO and executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO;
- Review benchmarking reports and analysis, market practice and trends in relation to remuneration and recommendations (if any) from remuneration consultants and make recommendations to the Board on the following matters:
 - (a) the remuneration arrangements and contract terms for the Managing Director/CEO and executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO;
 - (b) the terms and conditions of long-term incentive plans, short term incentive plans (and bonus payments), including performance measures, hurdles for the Managing Director/CEO and the executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO;
 - (c) the instruments to be used in any long-term incentive plan;
 - (d) the Group's policies regarding superannuation arrangements and other benefits; and
 - (e) the remuneration to be paid to Non-Executive Directors;
- Review recommendations from the Managing Director/CEO regarding the annual salary review budget and its application;
- Monitor consistency between remuneration policies and practices applied to the Managing Director/CEO and executives and those applied by the Managing Director/CEO for roles below executives including reviewing and approving recommendations from the Managing Director/CEO of any significant change in policies and practices for employees below executives;
- Review annually, and report to the Board on, reports from management on remuneration by gender to assess pay equity;

- Oversee the implementation of processes to ensure that the Company's annual remuneration report includes the information required by the Corporations Act; and
- Oversee the implementation of processes to ensure that the Company puts to the vote at its annual general meeting a resolution that its remuneration report be adopted and that the chair of the annual general meeting allows a reasonable opportunity for the members as a whole to ask questions about, or make comments on, the remuneration report (see section 250R and 250SA of the Corporations Act).

3. Nomination Responsibilities

The responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee in relation to nomination related matters are to:

- Consider and make recommendations to the Board in relation to the size and composition of the Board and the necessary and desirable skills, experience and diversity on the Board;
- Consider the time commitment required of Directors (including consideration of the appropriate number of other positions held by Non-Executive Directors);
- Review at least annually the Board's skills matrix and report to the Board on any gaps identified in the collective skills and experience needed on the Board to address existing and emerging business and governance issues relevant to the Company;
- Consider and make recommendations to the Board in relation to the process by which candidates for the Board and Managing Director/CEO are identified and selected, including whether or not an external consultant is engaged to identify and assess candidates and any steps required to ensure that a diverse range of candidates is considered;
- Consider and make recommendations to the Board in relation to Board succession planning, terms of appointment and re-appointment of Directors with a view to maintaining an appropriate level of experience, skills, diversity and expertise on the Board;
- Make recommendations to the Board in relation to, and oversee the process for, evaluating the performance of the Board, Board Committees, the Chair of the Board, individual Directors and the Managing Director/CEO and in collaboration with the Managing Director/CEO, the executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO;
- Consider and make recommendations to the Board in relation to Managing Director/CEO succession and, in collaboration with the Managing Director/CEO, succession planning in respect of executives reporting to the Managing Director/CEO; and
- Develop plans for the induction of new Non-Executive Directors and the enhancement of the skills, expertise and knowledge of the Non-Executive Directors through access to appropriate continuing education and professional development.

The functions of the Committee do not relieve the Board of any of its responsibilities.

4. Diversity Responsibilities

The responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee in relation to diversity are to:

- Consider, and make recommendations to the Board in relation to, the Company's policy on diversity and inclusion;
- Consider, and make recommendations to the Board in relation to, the adoption of measurable objectives for achieving diversity in the composition of the Board, senior executives and the workforce generally;
- Monitor progress in achieving the diversity objectives set by the Board;
